

Facts about Florence Nightingale

By Harriet Plummer

- Florence Nightingale is regarded as the founder of the modern nursing profession
- Some people call her the lady with the lamp
- She was born in Florence Italy
- In 1907 she was the first woman to receive the queens order of merit award
- In 1860 the nightingale training school for nurses opened at St Thomas's hospital London
- Sadly she died of a illness on 13 of august 1910
- She will forever be remembered as the founder of modern nursing

